

Assistant General Manager - Modern Restaurant & Event Venue - Central London - up to £50k + bonus

On offer:

- Competitive salary of up to £50,000 per annum
- Discount on food and drinks for yourself and guests
- Opportunities for career development as they promote from within
- Access to external training courses

Our client offers modern European cuisine made from fresh, ethically sourced ingredients and a unique event space catering for a varied clientele.

The menu is unique and seasonal, made by an experienced and passionate kitchen team.

They take pride in delivering exceptional standards of service.

They are seeking an experienced Assistant General Manager at their Central London location to be an integral part of the leadership team dedicated to keeping the standards high and reputation in place.

If you have:

- Proven experience as a Restaurant Manager or Assistant General Manager
- A commitment to outstanding customer service, guest satisfaction and team leadership
- Passion for food, wine and the hospitality industry
- An innovative mindset with a focus on continuous improvement

we would like to hear from you!

If you're ready to take your career to the next level and be part of a dynamic, passionate team, please send your CV outlining your relevant experience.